Fall Basic Program

Cost $425 Dates: September 14 -November 6
Don't lose your base in the fall. The best way to have a successful ski season is to continue to work on your base endurance, ski specific speed ski technique and ski strength though the fall. In the fall weekday program we do this with a balance of long ski and running workouts, and we begin to tune up for the season with ski specific intervals. We'll ski, pole hike, and tear apart your technique. Limited to 15 skiers.

Meet at Hyland at 3:00 pm. Kids with late dismissal will start at 3:30 pm. TWTh

Fall Advanced Program

Cost $650 Dates: September 14 - November 6
The fall advanced program adds two more training days to the basic program. We ski with the Competition team on Thursdays and the Sunday program on the weekend. The off day on Tuesday allows us to schedule an on own longer training day for Saturday since we start to run out of daylight as we approach the ski season.

Meet at Hyland at 3:00 pm. Kids with late dismissal will start at 3:30 pm. M-Th,SU

Fall Sunday Program

Cost $150 Dates: September 20 – November 8.
This is for the runners, swimmers, volleyball and soccer players, and the skiers who just want another workout. Split up between distance workouts and technique work, this is the perfect way for multi sport athletes to keep in contact with their skiing through your fall season. As you head into your fall sports it is easy to put skiing on the back burner. But you can lose muscle memory and technique over the fall! Since it is vital that you ski some in the fall, this is your opportunity to do so with some of the best coaches around. We travel all around the West Metro for this program, using Hyland, Elm Creek, and Cedar trails. Limited to 20 skiers.

2:00 at various sites.

Thanksgiving On-Snow Festival—
West Yellowstone, MT

Cost $799 Dates: November 21—November 29.
You are invited to attend a weeklong on-snow ski camp at the West Yellowstone ski festival this November 21 – November 29. The camp will include seven days of on-snow instruction. We will work on both skate and classic technique every day. Every skier will get one on one videotaping and analysis of both techniques.

The camp cost is $799. This cost includes almost everything. Food, housing, transportation, trail pass, it's all included. You'll only need money for meals on the road, and any souvenirs.

We will be taking a coach bus from St. Paul to West Yellowstone. MT. We will leave on Saturday at 1 p.m., drive over night and arrive at West Yellowstone the morning of the 21nd. We will be staying and eating at a local Yellowstone hotel, most likely the Stagecoach Inn. The food includes three meals a day and of course a Thanksgiving feast! On Saturday afternoon we will pack up and head home, arriving in Minneapolis November 29th.

The camp is open to anyone! Tell your teammates. However, space is limited so sign-up soon. Registration closes on November 5th. Last year we filled the camp in October. Once the bus is full, that's it.

Camp will occur no matter what the depth of snow pack. We will advise on required equipment the week before. No refunds after November 1st.
